

THE BACKMAN-TINSCH WILD ANIMAL CIRCUS

Entirely New Departure in Tented
Amusements, Coming Here
For One Day Only.

At last Liberal is to see the newest novelty in out-door tented amusements, when the new Backman-Tinsch two-ring wild animal circus comes to the city July 23 for one day only, afternoon and night, and to its credit everyone will concede the program for extreme novelty is unequalled in thrilling wild animal training.

This organization is a well-known enterprise in all the largest cities and now for the first time will devote its endeavors to all sizes of cities and towns, giving the same high-class entertainment at every place where the big tents are erected.

This enterprise is calculated to please every admirer of wild and domestic animal training, and is particularly pleasing to the children and the ladies, for when the management pays particular attention, and where they are as safe and comfortable as at a lecture, or in their own home.

A big thrilling lion act by a skilled trainer is one of the features, interspersed with all kinds of strutting and dangerous performances, in a long and praiseworthy program.

For the children and all the little ones, this management has made such special provision and attractive arrangements that they will never forget the pleasant visit to the big Backman-Tinsch Wild Animal Circus, for during the visit to this clean, clever and well conducted enterprise all the little folks will be invited to ride and play with the educated ponies, the little horses and complete a full day's enjoyment.

KANSAS WAY OF ENFORCING HARVEST LABOR DENOUNCED

The Eastern Conference of Migratory and Casual Workers voted unanimously to oppose the Kansas method of enforcing labor in harvest fields. The conference denounced such methods as un-American, and savoring of peonage.

The action of the conference was telegraphed to Governor Allen from Philadelphia.

The conference pronouncement, however, will have no effect upon the policy of the Kansas executive, who reiterated his insistence that the emergency in the Kansas wheat belt is such that everyone who can must aid in saving the crop.

RAIL EMPLOYEES MUST NOT WORK OVERTIME ANY MORE

Railroad employees failing to comply with the government's hours of service law will be dealt with by the interstate commerce commission which announces it will prosecute for violations.

The director general of the railroads had contended that the railroad administration wished to mete out punishment, "fire" disobedient employees, or otherwise dethrone them. The interstate commerce commission was opposed to such action.

The law means that Mr. Conductor and Mr. Brakeman must not work over sixteen hours at a stretch at train service nor Mr. Telegrapher over eight hours unless they wish to become entangled in heavy lawsuits.

Time was when railroad officials were held responsible for their employees failing to make proper observance of the orders passed by Congress referring to hours of service, safety appliances and inspection.

But the old orders of things "hath changed" and now railroad employees are thrown entirely on their own responsibility to see that they are not working overtime nor riding on trains not properly equipped with safety devices.

JOHN DUBOIS DIES FROM INJURIES

John Dubois, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Dubois, died at the Morrow hospital Friday evening, July 11.

While working with a mule in the harvest field last Wednesday the animal ran away with him, injuring him fatally. He was taken to the hospital immediately but his injuries were beyond the reach of medicine or surgery.

The news of his misfortune spread rapidly and many were the prayers for his recovery. But it could not be and his spirit took its flight to the Heavenly home.

John was born February 5th, 1906, and spent most of his short life here. Among his playmates he was a general favorite. He was a bright, energetic little fellow, clean and manly, loved and admired by all who knew him. He was a faithful attendant of the M. E. Sunday School in the ranks of which he will be sadly missed.

Services were held at the grave Saturday at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. M. Wilkinson of the M. E. Church.

The bereaved parents have the kindly sympathy of all in their sore trial.

OBITUARY

Pearl Emogene Helper was born March 2-1875, in Logan County, Illinois. Died at St Marys Hospital at Winfield, Kansas, June 22-1919 at 4:30 P. M. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Turley, who survives her. She also is survived by her brother and sister, Walter Turley, and Katherine Clark.

Mrs. Helper joined the Christian Church of Udall at the age of 15, and lived a faithful believer in Christ until her death.

She was united in marriage to Walter B. Helper, June 5th, 1908, and was a loving and devoted wife, the prominent feature of their married life was the close companionship of Mr. and Mrs. Helper. For the past six years they have lived at Liberal, Kansas, where Mr. Helper has been engaged in the produce business. During their residence there they enjoyed the highest respect of the citizens of that community, and the sad, and untimely death of Mrs. Helper came as a severe shock to their large circle of friends.

Mrs. Helper was first stricken about Feb. 12th and during the succeeding months, and until her death she was a patient sufferer, and was apparently prepared to meet the end as she had previously made numerous requests that she desired to be carried out after her death.

Funeral Services were conducted in the Congregational Church, on Friday afternoon, by the Rev. H. S. Scott, text, Psalm 90-9 "We spend our years as a tale is told." Appropriate hymns were sung by the Quartet, Mrs. D. P. Simons, Miss Hazel Kiser, B. H. Latham and H. S. Scott. Interment was in the Udall Cemetery.—Udall Herald.

WALTER BASSETT

The following is clipped from the Star of Indianapolis, Ind., of July 11th, and will be of interest to the many friends of Walter Bassett and his bereaved parents:

The funeral of Walter N. Bassett, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bassett, who died Tuesday at his home in Liberal, Kansas, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of his uncle, Norman L. Bassett, 3535 Kenwood avenue, with burial in Crown Hill.

Three weeks ago the boy came to Indianapolis with his parents to attend the funeral of his grandfather, Timothy S. Bassett, 1404 Lexington avenue. He returned to Liberal and on Friday last fell ill of typhoid fever. Death came four days later. Mrs. T. S. Bassett, the grandmother, was called to Liberal, but arrived there after the boy died.

J. H. Bassett, the father, is a machinist in the Rock Island Railroad shops at Liberal. The boy was very popular among the shopmen. After his death the father's associates delegated O. B. Wimmer, one of their number, to accompany the funeral party as far as Chicago. Wimmer and the boy were almost inseparable companions. Norman L. Bassett, the uncle, is general ticket agent at the Indianapolis Union Station.
